13. “Margaret Garrett: 19” at Planthouse, New York

In celebration of the 100th anniversary of the passage of the 19th amendment, giving women the right to vote, Margaret Garrett has created a series of video works and painted collages inspired by 19 poses by choreographer and Modern dancer Martha Graham. “In creating these pieces, I felt like I was working with a very potent alphabet, an intimate language about dance, women and power,” the artist said in a statement.
